SPOTLIGHT ON...

CURIOUS ABOUT OUR PLANET DIGITAL SCIENCE FESTIVAL 29 SEPT-1 OCT

As the UK prepares to host the UN climate summit COP26 this November, get your pupils involved in uncovering the impact of climate change on our beautiful planet and help them to think about a more sustainable future.

Visit the 3 digital festival tents to take part in live talks with scientists, explore green jobs, find out more about COP26 and citizen science projects, or download lots of fun and educational resources for your pupils. Click on the title to find out more.

EMBEDDING RACE EQUALITY IN SCHOOLS

A new package of support materials for teachers and staff will embed anti-racism and race equality into all aspects of school life. Education Scotland's resource will ensure children and young people see language, content and imagery that reflects the diversity of culture, identities, and experiences, including their own.

Education Secretary Shirley-Anne Somerville said:

"Racism of any form has no place in Scotland which is why embedding anti-racism into the ethos and practice of our education system is imperative"
